A quorum was declared present.

Others in attendance included: Terry Burnsworth president of Pyramid Architecture / Engineering, representing Morgan Count: Norm Voyles, Frans Hollanders, and Scott Hamilton, representing City of Martinsville Fire and Police included: Kenny Murphy, Bob Carter, J.R. Blondell and the City Dispatchers.

MINUTES

The Minutes of the June 2, 2014 meeting will be acted on June 16, 2014.

The purpose of the meeting was to continue discussing the City Employees that will be covered when the City enters into an inter-local agreement with the County and School District.

All current City Employees will become known as Legacy Employees as the agreement moves into its final draft.

Key issues of concern include: City Employees retaining their current seniority, and benefits until the end of their employment; discipline; advancement and compensation; clarification of how over-time will be offered as well as will part-time employees even exist.

After questions and discussion, Terry Burnworth indicated he can have Draft #5 ready on Monday, June 9th so that the Council and the Mayor can review it.
